WELCOME!

LIFE AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

Thank you for participating in the very first virtual career and college fair made especially for the Catholic teen.

We have heard all your requests to help you find the answers you and your teen are asking about what happens once you leave the "homeschool nest". Is it possible to prepare our children for life? Where do we go to find faithful Catholic colleges? What opportunities are there beyond college?

Many gifted and knowledgeable and experienced Catholic mentors have given so generously to help you get real life solutions to these vital and pressing questions.

All you have to do is scan the list of the 55+ talks and you will be amazed, and want to share them with your teens, your family and friends.

So you can plan and get the MOST out of this event you will find:

- TIPS for engaging in an online experience
- Checklist of 35+ Pre-recorded talks
- Checklist of 20 LIVE talks
- The LIVE Schedule for the 3 days
- List of Exhibitors - visit the BRAND NEW Exhibitor HALL

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- College prep
- Career Exploration
- Vocation Discernment
- Military and Skilled Trades
- Gap Year Options

Together, let us find JOY in our roles as the primary educators of our children in the faith.

God bless you and yours,

Paola Ciskanik, Walter Crawford, Maureen Wittmann

HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF THIS EVENT

TIP #1:

Come prepared with the "I can always learn something new" attitude.

Even if a talk looks like it's something you are already know, remember that you are now at a new place in your life, with a bunch of new experiences and needs!

TIP # 2:

Cut out your distractions!

Most likely you will be viewing this event at home, and not able to keep yourself secluded from your family! While it is tempting to hide in a closet, let's get real, they will find you!

So, try the next best thing, wipe out those tiresome, little distractions that you can cut out. When you sit down to listen to the talks or visit the exhibitors, turn off all notifications. Say "no" to your social media screens, close your email, and any other digital, electronic distractions.

TIP # 3:

Watch the talks with your teens, friends and/or your spouse!

Invite your spouse to a "date with Catholic speakers." Make popcorn for your teens! Yes, by watching with others, you are certain to boost your motivation, increase your attention to the talks, and provide some accountability in applying what you learned.

TIP # 4:

Spend some time in prayer and reflection, BEFORE the event goes live, defining your "WHY."

It is super easy to just concentrate on the "what and how of life after homeschooling." The talks and exhibitors will provide plenty of great answers to your questions.

By having a clear, and focused, "WHY you are choosing (thinking, or curious) about what your teen needs," helps to direct your attention, set your goals!

TIP # 5:

Schedule replays and review time.

Yes, repetition does build mastery! When you hear a talk that really resonates with you, watch it again, and take more notes! I know it may be hard to do in the 3 days, BUT the good news is that you can get unlimited viewing with the VIP Pass, if you do run out of time!

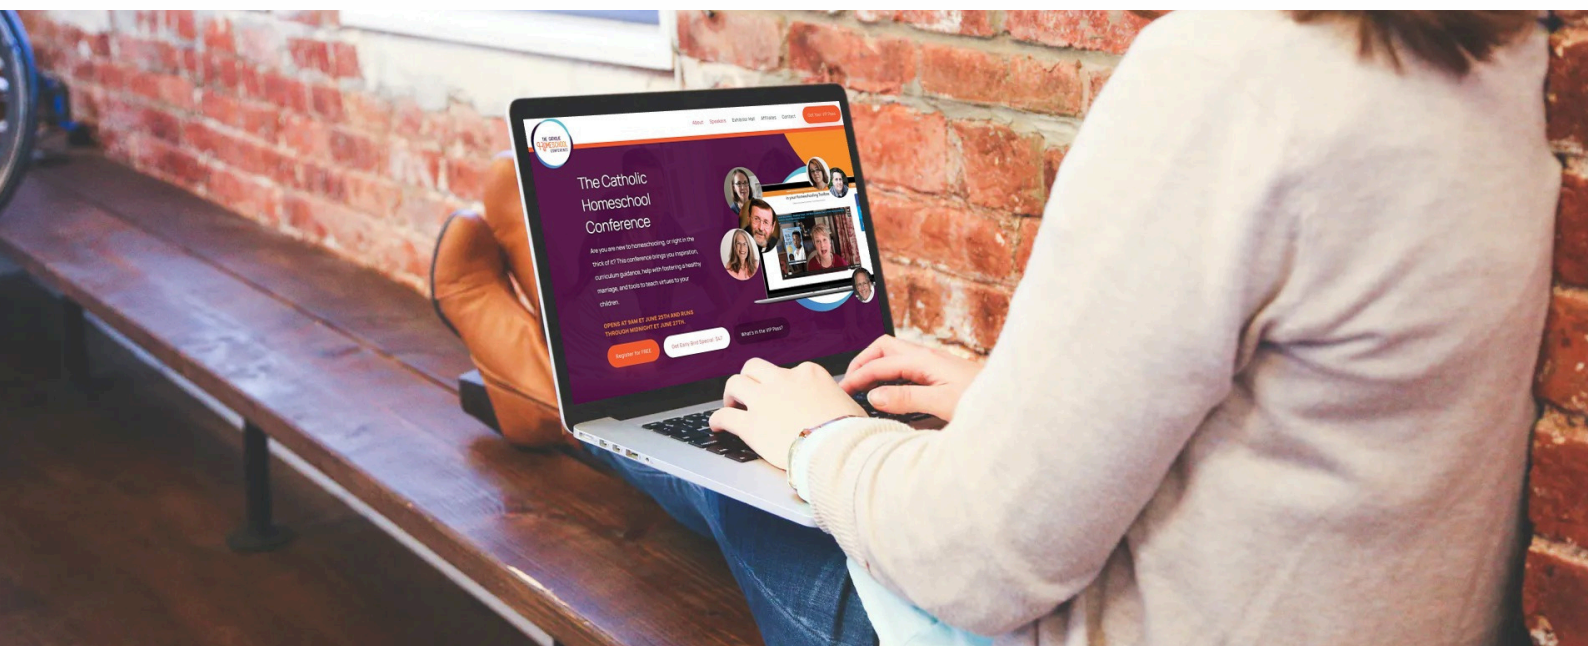

Besides you will want to refer back to many of these talks, over and over again, throughout your homeschool journey!
